Worship With Us

9:00am Contemporary Service

This worship offers a relaxed way to praise our Lord. Our talented Song Team leads our music. Children's Church is available for kids entering preschool thru 5th grade (kids excused after young disciples). Come as you are and worship in a casual atmosphere.

10:15am & Noon ~ All-Church Fellowship

Join us for coffee and cookies to catch-up with each other's lives. This sense of community is vital as we get to know our neighbors! Childcare available during the 10:15am fellowship hour.

11:00am Traditional Service

This worship is traditional with hymn selections, anthems sung by our choir and special music offerings. Join us for refreshments following worship.

Dear Church Family,

The Operating Budget of our church is established annually by the Church Board to support the ministries of the church. The Board gathers information from its various committees during the fall of each year and establishes a budget which reflects the ministries that we believe God is calling us to in the coming year.

During the same time period that the budget is being crafted, the Stewardship Committee implements our annual request for pledge commitments from the congregation. As our people make their pledges, the Board is able to determine the level of financial commitment that our church can make for the coming year to support the program and personnel costs of our ministries.

Each individual or family will be given the opportunity to support our church through pledging. Prior to our first Stewardship Sunday on October 13, you will receive a packet in the mail from the Stewardship Committee. Our hope is that each individual or family will review the information, and pray about and make a financial faith promise (pledge) for 2020 by filling out the pledge card and returning it to the church.

What are some things to consider as you decide about your financial faith promise for our church for 2020? First, giving is a matter of grace, not law. We want you to give because you see that your financial participation in our church will bless the church and allow it to do its ministry, not because you feel pressured to give.

Second, take your money seriously, but not too seriously. Proverbs cautions, "Don't wear yourself out to get rich." Money is important, but it isn't everything, and it can't bring true satisfaction. If you take money too seriously it can cloud your judgment, alter your motives and steal the joy that generosity brings. The generous person remembers that money is a means to an end, not the end itself.

Third, be a river, not a reservoir. We are called to be channels, not containers. God's love and grace are to flow through us, not be held in us. As stewards, our compelling desire must be to constantly give as the river of God's blessings courses through our lives. Christians who practice generous giving have a conscious recognition of passing on what God has given them.

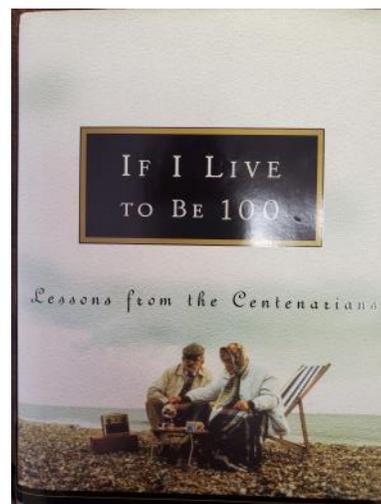

We are a community of faith in Jesus Christ, and we desire for each person to both benefit from, and contribute to, that community. May each one of us purpose to give with a grateful heart, thankful for God's abundance.

Yours in Christ,
Pastor Steve

Tales From The Library

CPC Christian Book Club
Monday November 4th
10:30 am

Neenah Ellis always wanted to live to 100, and her fascination led her to interview centenarians from all over the country about what life was like at the very beginning of the century, and how things have changed over time. If I Live to Be 100 is a remarkable book, beautifully written and elegantly wise, and can be found in the church library.

FOOD BANK SUNDAY

FAMILY PROMISE

Gratefulness...

All things were created by Him, and for Him

Fall is the season for many things in our church, including stewardship. Four consecutive Sundays, starting October 13, in worship and in study will focus on stewardship -- our response to God's blessings and generosity in our lives. During these four Sundays, sermons will look to what the Bible has to say about stewardship and a member of our congregation will speak to a particular ministry of our church that exists because of our generous congregation.

Our stewardship theme comes from Paul's letter to the Colossians. It speaks to God as the creator of everything, and therefore every good thing that comes to us through this creation is a gift and a blessing from God. We often speak of time, talent and treasure when talking of stewardship. There are many other things that God gives us in addition; gifts like goodness, humility, kindness, gratitude, love, joy, and peace. And this gracious God gives with abundance, meeting our needs and beyond, that we may care for others and share God's love in our world. As disciples of Jesus Christ, our mission is to join this growing human chain that passes on God's blessings to the people in need that God puts before us. At Congregational-Presbyterian Church, we are to be equipped by our staff and congregation to go out and serve in the many different ways that we are called by God.

This congregation has a long history of generous support of the mission of Congregational-Presbyterian Church, and with God's help it will continue for a long time to come. Thank you for your past financial support of our church. Please prayerfully consider the future needs of our church as you consider your pledge of financial support in the coming year. The staff and church board of Congregational-Presbyterian, with God's help and guidance, will wisely use the resources so generously given by our congregation.

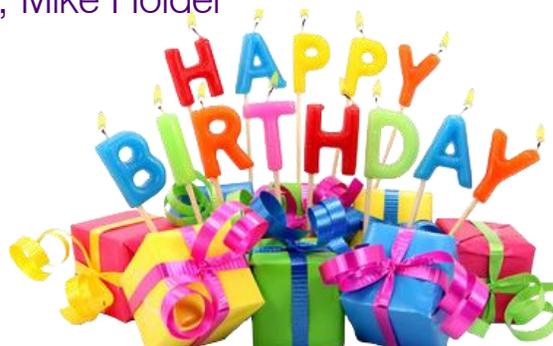

With gratitude, your Stewardship Committee
Kathy Johnson, Judy Rooney, Vicky Boubel, Tom Boubel (Elder)

"Conversations on the Spiritual Life"

A course taught by Pastor Steve Wilbraham

Guided by the lives and writings of Christian writers through the ages, including C. S. Lewis, Dietrich Bonhoeffer, Martin Luther, Catherine of Genoa, and St. Francis of Assisi, and instructed by Scripture, we will explore ways to grow closer to God as we discover what these believers had come to believe and practice in their Spiritual Life.

"Then and Now: Church History for Faith Today"

A course taught by Pastor McLane Stone

In the basement of the Administration Building

What can the past teach us about today? As Christians, we are "surrounded by a cloud of witnesses" (Hebrews 12:1) that reaches back two thousand years to the earliest Christian communities. Engaging the life and times of these communities can help us to better understand our own lives and our call to faithfulness to God. Join us as we explore major moments in church history and consider their lessons for following Jesus in the 21st century.
